

a WORLD in MOTION

Organised by
Juliette Cadiot, Irina Tcherneva & Kritika

With the participation of Gregory Afinogenov,
Stephen Bittner, Alain Blum, Jane Burbank,
Sandra Dahlke, Sabine Dullin, Michael David Fox,
Krista Goff, Catherine Gousseff, Peter Holquist, Alexandra
Oberländer

Friday 12 Dec 2025

The American University of Paris
Room Q-801 6, Rue du Colonel Combes
75007 Paris

9:00 am: Breakfast

9:30-9:45 am: Opening remarks

9:45-11:15 am : North-western border

- Alison Smith (University of Toronto) "Ingria/Ingermanland/Izhora/Inkeri: From "Empty" Space to Showcase for Imperial Rule in the Eighteenth Century"

- Tamara Polyakova (University of Eastern Finland, Karelian Institute) "Feeding Karelians as a Foreign Policy"

11:15 -11:30 am: coffee break

11:30-1:00 pm: Imperial Policy Making:
Comparative Perspective I

- Yevhen Yashchuk (University of Oxford) "Internalizing an External International Crisis in Imperial Borderlands: Everyday Life in Kyiv and Lviv between 1875 and 1878"
- Nataliya Sureva (BridgeBSR) "Colonising Europe's Edge: State-Driven Transformation in Banat and the Black-Sea Steppe under Habsburg and Romanov Rule, 1750-1830"

1:00-2:00 pm: lunch

2:00-3:30 pm : Imperial Policy Making:
Comparative Perspective II

- Masha Cerovic (EHESS) "Imperial frontier: the Russian-Ottoman entanglement in Anatolia (1877-1918)"
- Niccolò Pianciola (University of Padua) "Bandits, Spies, and Migrants: Tsarist Military Intelligence and the Mobile Population of the Sino-Russian Borderlands, 1898-1914"

3:30-3:45 pm: coffee break

3:45-5:15 pm: POWs and Refugees

- Brian Robert Fairley (University of Pittsburgh) "From the Caucasus to the Tillenbergh: Sounding Borders of Race and Nation on the Eastern Front"

- Jo Laycock (University of Manchester) "Beyond the Camp at Ba'quba: Armenian Refugees negotiating the Imperial 'Shatterzone'"

5:30-7:00 pm: Gregory Afinogenov (Georgetown University) "A Meeting at the Duc's: On Eighteenth-Century Russian Empire Studies after 2022"

7:00 pm : cocktail

Saturday 13 Dec 2025

Campus Condorcet - Centre de colloques,
Auditorium 150 | Place du Front Populaire,
93300 Aubervilliers

8:30-9:00 am: breakfast

9:00-11:15 am: Aftermath of the World War I

- Hanna Matt (University of Manchester) "Crisis and Control: Responses to Displacement in Russian Turkestan During the First World War and its Aftermath"
- Kārlis Sils (Södertörn University) "Trajectories of Violence in Interwar Rīga: From Imperial Collapse to Post-Imperial Radicalisation"

11:15-11:30 am: coffee break

11:30-1:10 pm: Post-World War II Displacements

- Nathalie Moine (CNRS/Centre Marc Bloch) "Replacing German Settlers on the Left Bank of the Dniester: A Local History of Transnational Deportations, Rebirth, and Post-Soviet Collapse"
- Diana Dumitru (Georgetown University) "Hiding Patterns: Evasion and Postwar Justice in the Romanian-Soviet Borderlands"
- Anna Tchintcharauli (Ilia State University) "Soviet Forceful Resettlement Practices in Eyes of The Caucasus Highlanders"

1:10-2:10 pm : lunch

2:10-3:30 pm : Focus on Diasporas

- Olga Khomenko (University of Oxford) "Ukrainian Futures in Motion: Diasporic Nationhood and Transnational Activism in Manchurian Borderlands, 1932-1937"
- Enrico Osvaldi (Georgetown University) "Otchuzhdeniia, from extraterritoriality to necropolitics: Colonial Continuities in Soviet policymaking in China through the White Russian community, 1920- 1929"

3:30-3:45 pm : coffee break

3:45-6:00 pm: On the Afghan-Soviet Border

- Isabelle Linas-Aoulova (Science Po Paris) "Kinship strategies, out-migration and Stalinist violence in the Soviet-Afghan borderland: a look from vernacular sources (1930s)"
- Mejgan Massoumi (Carnegie Mellon University) "Echoes Across the Border: Radio, Refuge, and the Cold War Soundscape in the Afghan-Soviet Borderlands"

6:00-6:30 pm : concluding remarks

Restaurant